Information about the town and/or neighbourhood	Our school is located in a very small town called El Palmar de Troya, with a population of about 2,400 inhabitants. Here you can find a link to know more about the town: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/El_Palmar_de_Troya https://www.turismosevilla.org/en/province-seville/our-towns/el-palmar-de-troya -You can live in Utrera, a bigger town which has a population of 52,617. Utrera is 15 kilometres away from El Palmar. It offers many different activities and a bigger variety of places to go in your spare time; such as gyms, libraries, theatres, cinema... At “Casa de la Cultura” you can find different courses you can join: https://www.utrera.org/casa-de-cultura/
Getting to school	- Living in Utrera provides you with the possibility of car-pooling with other teachers. Most of the staff goes to the school from this beautiful town. Have a look at it here: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Utrera

Accommodation Where to live in town?	The most effective way to find accommodation in town is to go to a real estate agency in Utrera.
